 10. Point 13 of the agenda is of formal nature.
- 2. Communication by electronic means between shareholders and the Company in connection with the Annual General Meeting

Within the limits set by the Commercial Companies Code, shareholders may contact the Company by means of electronic communication, in particular they may submit motions, requests, ask questions and send notices and documents.

For the purpose of electronic communication between shareholders and the Company, the following e-mail address should be used: wza@lpp.com.pl. Risks associated with the use of electronic means of communication with the Company will burden the shareholder.

Together with documents sent electronically by a shareholder, which were drawn up originally in a language other than Polish, the shareholder should send their translation into Polish made by a sworn translator.

All documents sent electronically by a shareholder to the Company, as well as by the Company to a shareholder, should be scanned (converted) to "PDF" format.

3. Shareholders' rights concerning additions to the agenda of general meetings and submitting draft resolutions

3.1. Shareholders' right to request for specific issues to be included in the agenda of general meetings

A Company shareholder or shareholders representing at least one-twentieth of the share capital have the right to request for specific issues to be included in the agenda of the Annual General Meeting of the Company. The request, including justification or a draft resolution concerning the proposed point of the agenda, should be submitted to the Management Board of the Company not later than 21 days before the scheduled meeting date, i.e. by 4 June 2012. The request may be submitted in writing or in electronic form - in accordance with the principles described in item 2 above. The request submitted both in writing and in electronic form should be accompanied by a copy of the certificate for shares and documents referred to in item 4.2 (b) below.

3.2. Shareholders' right to submit draft resolutions

A shareholder or shareholders representing at least one-twentieth of the share capital may, before the date of the Annual General Meeting of the Company, submit draft resolutions concerning matters already in the agenda of the General Meeting or matters that are to be added to the agenda. The proposal may be submitted in electronic form in accordance with the principles described in item 2 above or in writing. The proposal must include the documents referred to in point 4.2 (b).

During the Annual General Meeting any shareholder may submit draft resolutions concerning matters already in the agenda. The drafts should be submitted in Polish.

4. Exercising voting rights by a proxy

4.1. General principles of exercising voting rights by a proxy

A shareholder who is a natural person may participate in the Annual General Meeting of the Company and exercise their voting right in person or by a proxy. Shareholders who are not natural persons may participate in the Annual General Meeting through a person or persons entitled to represent them (having the power to make representations on their behalf) or by a proxy.

The authority to attend and vote by a proxy must be granted in writing or in electronic form.

A proxy may exercise all the powers of the shareholder at the Annual General Meeting, unless otherwise determined by the wording of the power of attorney. A proxy may grant further authority, if it results from the wording of the power of attorney. A proxy may represent more than one shareholder and vote differently of the shares of each shareholder. A shareholder holding shares registered in more than one share account may appoint separate proxies to exercise their rights attached to the shares on each account.

The Company also announces that in case the power of attorney is granted by a shareholder along with voting instructions, the Company will not verify whether the proxy holders exercise their voting rights in accordance with instructions received from shareholders. Accordingly, the Company announces that the voting instruction should only be given to an established proxy.

Forms required to exercise voting rights by a proxy are, from the date of convening this Annual General Meeting, available on the Company's website at: www.inwestor.lpp.com.pl.

4.2. Ways of notifying the Company of granting the power of attorney using electronic communication means

- (a) Shareholders will notify the Company of the power of attorney granted in electronic form using the following e-mail address: wza@lpp.com.pl. The notice will include the shareholder's and proxy's telephone numbers and their e-mail addresses, through which the Company will be able to communicate with the shareholder and the proxy. The notice of granting the power of attorney should also contain information about the scope of the power of attorney, i.e. indicate the number of shares for which voting rights will be exercised and the date of the General Meeting at which these rights will be exercised.
- (b) Together with the notice of granting the power of attorney in an electronic form, a shareholder will also send the content (text) of the power of attorney, excluding the instructions for exercising voting rights by a proxy, the scan of ID cards or passport pages identifying the shareholder and the proxy or other document enabling to identify the shareholder granting the power of attorney and the proxy. If the power of attorney is granted by a legal person (within the meaning of Article 33 of the Civil Code) or an unincorporated organisational unit having legal capacity (according to Article 33¹ § 1 of the Civil Code), a shareholder will send a scan of the register in which it is entered or a scan of another document confirming the authority of persons acting on behalf of such an entity. If the power of attorney was granted to a legal person or an unincorporated organisational unit having capacity, a shareholder additionally sends a scan of the certified copy of the entry in the registry, where the proxy is registered or another evidence of the existence of such an entity and the person authorised to act on their behalf.

- (c) The principles described in item 4.2. (b) above apply to notifying the Company of revoking the power of attorney, respectively by electronic means
- (d) Notice of granting or revoking the power of attorney in electronic form should be made not later than by 12.00 on the day preceding the commencement of the Annual General Meeting.
- (e) Meeting the obligations provided under item 4.2. (b) above will not discharge a proxy of the obligation to submit, while drawing up the attendance list of persons entitled to attend the general meeting, documents referred to in the aforementioned documents item to identify a shareholder and their proxy.

4.3. Verification of powers of attorney validity and the identification of a shareholder and their proxy

In order to verify the validity of the power of attorney granted in electronic form and to identify a shareholder and their proxy, after receiving the notice of granting the power of attorney in electronic form in accordance with the provisions of item 4.2. (a) and (b), the Company takes steps to verify if the information mentioned in item 4.2. (a) and scans of documents mentioned in item 4.2. (b) have been attached, and in the case of legal persons and organisational units that are not legal persons, but have legal capacity, if the power of attorney has been granted by the persons authorised to represent the entity.

The Company is entitled to communicate by telephone at the number indicated by a shareholder in the implementation of item 4.2. (a) or by a return e-mail message in order to verify the fact of granting by the shareholder the power of attorney in electronic form.

The Company may additionally take other steps to identify a shareholder and their proxy in order to verify the validity of the power of attorney granted in electronic form, but these actions should be proportionate to the objective.

The notice of granting or revoking the power of attorney in electronic form without observing the requirements indicated in item 4.2. (a), (b) and (d) is non-binding to the Company.

4.4. Power of attorney granted to a member of the Management Board of the Company or its staff

Management Board members and employees of the Company may act as proxies of shareholders at general meetings.

If a proxy of the shareholder at the Annual General Meeting is a member of the Management Board, a member of the Supervisory Board of the Company, an employee of the Company or a member of governing bodies or an employee of a subsidiary of LPP SA in Gdańsk, the power of attorney may authorise to represent them only at this Annual General Meeting. A proxy must disclose to the shareholder the circumstances indicating the existing or possible conflict of interest. Granting further powers of attorney is excluded in such cases.

A proxy referred to in the preceding section will vote in accordance with the instructions of the shareholder.

5. Possibilities and modes of participating in the Annual General Meeting of the Company by means of electronic communication

The Company does not provide a possibility to participate in the Annual General Meeting by means of electronic communication.
